

FRN 402: Cultural History of the French-Speaking World

Designed to examine the historical and cultural development of post-colonial francophone regions. The course surveys major historical events from the beginning of French colonization to the present day. Class will be conducted in French.

Units: 3

Prerequisites:

Completion of a Study Abroad program in French, or Instructor Consent.

Program: French