

EMP 350W: Environmental Policy

Environmental policies are social actions designed to protect the environment. This course examines the processes and consequences of policies for environmental protection. This course also examines the roles of leadership, laws, and organizations in environmental protection.

This course satisfies the advanced writing skills course requirement.

Units: 3

Prerequisites:

WRIT 101

Program: Environmental Management and Policy