

LIT 215: Latin American Literature

This course explores various aspects of the literatures that have developed in Latin America. The works read in class may be drawn from indigenous sources as well as from the Spanish and Portuguese traditions. All works are read in translation.

Units: 3

Prerequisites:

LIT 140, or sophomore standing.