

Graduate Academic Advising

Meeting and engaging in dialogue regularly with the academic advisor is an integral part of the Soka experience.

Advising is available from the Program Director to assist graduate students in the planning and completion of their university study as well as in their career search and development. With the exception of their first course in the Program, EDU 501, all students are required to meet with the Director prior to enrollment in classes.