

Theft Policy

It is the expectation of the university that all campus citizens respect the property of the university as well as property belonging to other campus citizens. Attempted or actual removal of personal or university property from the owner's possession or premises without prior permission is prohibited.